Born in Dallas, Texas, McKenzie Dove now calls Birmingham, Alabama, home, where she lives with her husband and creates art that bridges bold individuality with versatile elegance. Known for her distinctive technique, Dove works exclusively with pure oil paint applied entirely with palette knives. Her signature style features thick, layered textures, a hallmark she honed through studying the Impressionistic and Expressionistic art movements.

Dove draws inspiration from the harmonious interplay of interior design, architecture, and the untamed beauty of nature. Her work captures the essence of these elements, resulting in pieces that exude personality while seamlessly complementing a variety of design aesthetics. Each painting is a testament to her artistic vision, offering a dynamic balance of sophistication and adaptability.

Through her textured compositions, Dove invites viewers to experience the tactile and visual richness of her creations, elevating her work beyond the canvas into a realm of timeless design.
