

Tracy Sharp

Tracy Sharp is the daughter of Felice Sharp and native to Atlanta. She paints abstract figurative works using a blend of pigments and mixed media. In an interview with CNN she said, "The best things in life are often disguised as tragedies. A declining market and difficult personal shifts encouraged me to reach beyond myself and into the world of art."